A plan with choices.

With an AARP® Medicare Supplement Plan from UnitedHealthcare at your side, you have the freedom to see any doctor or specialist who accepts Medicare.

Made just for you.

Medicare supplement plans also offer you the freedom to:

See providers without referrals

Change doctors any time

Travel without worry

Plus, some plans provide emergency care coverage in foreign countries.

Get the most value from your plan.

With your plan, you even have control of your experience and the type and amount of information that you receive from UnitedHealthcare.

To help us learn more about you, visit your preference site by scanning the code below with your phone's camera. Your answers will help us understand your needs and interests, so we can customize future communications to better support and serve you.

Your preference site also has information about various wellness extras that come along with your plan at no additional costs, including:

A gym membership

Vision, hearing and dental discounts

Other health-related services
