

Annual Birthday Enrollment Period Update in Indiana for AARP Medicare Supplement Insurance Plans

Effective July 1, 2026, the Annual Birthday Enrollment Period enrollment window will be modified in Indiana for AARP® Medicare Supplement Insurance Plans from UnitedHealthcare®.

What's changing?

The enrollment window will shift from starting on the individual's birthday and ending 60 days following their birthday, to beginning one month before their birthday and ending one month after their birthday.

Things to remember

Eligible individuals are guaranteed acceptance into a Medicare Supplement plan during the Annual Birthday Enrollment Period if the following criteria are met:

- Eligibility:
 - Age 65 and older
 - Must be replacing their current Medicare Supplement plan with the same lettered Medicare Supplement plan from a different carrier
- Documentation requirements: Applicants must provide documentation from their current Medicare Supplement carrier confirming:
 - Their name as the insured individual
 - The plan code
 - Proof the plan is still active

Examples include, but are not limited to:

- A letter from the current carrier
- A copy of the current ID card and billing statement

- Application receipt timeframe: UnitedHealthcare must receive the application no sooner than one month before the individual's birthday and no later than one month after their birthday.
